Masai Mara National Reserve

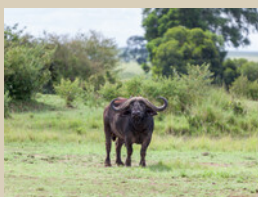

One of our favorite places to look for wildlife in Kenya is the Masai Mara National Reserve. That's because the wildlife here is incredible, with big cats (lions, leopards and cheetahs) and elephants among the highlights, not to mention black rhinos in the Mara Triangle. There's a very good chance you'll also see giraffes, buffaloes, wildebeests, zebras, hippos, hyenas, and, of course, impalas. And bring your binoculars, because more than 500 species of birds have been recorded in the reserve. It's a place of beautiful savannah landscapes as well, with lots of acacia trees.

Early Morning Game Drive, Masai Mara National Reserve

Imagine being out in the soft, early morning light, wrapped in a blanket, just as the animals emerge from their night's rest or from the shadows of their nighttime adventures. The world feels fresh and new on an early morning game drive, the sun has yet to beat down upon the earth, and it may end up being your favorite time to be out on safari.

View the great migration, Masai Mara National Reserve

Watch as wildebeest, zebra and other wildlife fill the horizon when we take you to see the great migration. It's an astonishing experience, one where the numbers of animals must be seen to be believed. There's always a chance of action whenever predators arrive on the scene.

Activities Day 2

Early Morning

- It's time for your early morning game drive in the Masai Mara. Early mornings (along with late afternoons) are the best times for finding wildlife, and also for taking photos. You'll really see the Mara at its best.

Rest of Day

Afternoon

- Get ready this evening in Masai Mara National Reserve for all the excitement of a guided game drive. No matter how many of these you do, you'll never lose that sense of anticipation for what animals you might see next.
- Relax and generally take it easy to allow yourself to both process and recover from all of the excitement that you've enjoyed on your safari so far.
- Share a sundowner with us in Masai Mara National Reserve. It's the perfect way to end your day, a sunset view over a few drinks.
